Make-A-Wish Foundation® of Alaska & Washington Announces New Trustee and Staffing Changes

SEATTLE - The Make-A-Wish Foundation of Alaska & Washington, the non-profit organization that grants wishes to children with life-threatening medical conditions, is pleased to announce that Beverly Magee has joined the Board of Trustees, while Lindsey Johnson has been promoted from Administrative Coordinator to Events Coordinator, and Tai Terry has been hired as the new Graphic and Web Designer.

Beverly Magee is the Director of Sales & Marketing at the Four Seasons Hotel Seattle. Prior to that, she worked as the Director of Sales & Marketing at the Fairmont Olympic Hotel in downtown Seattle and at the Four Seasons Hotel in Houston. She has served on organizing committees for several other non-profits including the Run of Hope benefitting Pediatric Brain Tumor Research Foundation, Seattle Children's Hospital and the Woodland Park Zoo. A native Texan, Beverly now calls Issaquah home along with her husband and twin daughters.

Tai Terry is formerly a contract web designer for the local chapter of the Make-A-Wish Foundation. In her new staff position as a Graphic and Web Designer, her responsibilities include web layout and design, design of e-communication pieces and collateral materials and assistance with social media opportunities. Terry is also a former Make-A-Wish intern, as well as a wish recipient. Her wish to meet Disney animators was granted in 2002. She currently resides in Renton and earned her Bachelor of Arts degree in Digital Arts in 2006 from Henry Cogswell College.

Lindsey Johnson was a former Make-A-Wish Intern before being hired onto the staff as an Administrative Coordinator. Her recent promotion from Administrative Coordinator to Events Coordinator change her role and responsibilities to include logistics and communication coordination of the local Chapter's major fundraising events including the Wish Night Gala & Auction, Fall Benefit Breakfast and Walk For Wishes. Constituent support, procurement of sponsorships and in-kind donations, committee meeting support and other special projects are some of the other responsibilities Johnson lives in Mill Creek and is a graduate of Seattle Pacific University.

About the Make-A-Wish Foundation:
