Make-A-Wish Foundation® Elects Seattle Sounders FC's Taylor Graham to its Board of Trustees

SEATTLE- The Make-A-Wish Foundation of Alaska, Montana, Northern Idaho and Washington, the non-profit organization that grants wishes to children with life-threatening medical conditions, is pleased to announce that Taylor Graham has been elected to its Board of Trustees.

Graham joined the Seattle Sounders FC professional soccer team in 2008 as a defender. He played with the team previously in 2005 and 2007. Prior to his professional career, Graham attended Stanford University where he joined the men's soccer program as a walk-on freshman. Graham was named All Pac-10 first team and All-Far West Region third team during his senior year. He was twice voted first team All-Academic Pac-10. Graham graduated with a degree in International Relations and a minor in Spanish. He earned his Masters in Sociology from Stanford University and is fluent in Spanish and French. He currently resides in Seattle.

The Make-A-Wish Foundation of Alaska, Montana, Northern Idaho and Washington grants the wishes of children with life-threatening medical conditions to enrich the human experience with hope, strength and joy. Since its inception in 1986, the chapter has granted more than 4,250 wishes to children in the Northwest and will grant 340 wishes this year alone.
